

F-100D "Super Sabre"

Adopted by the 176th Selfridge Composite Squadron (CAP)

This version of the F-100D was developed by North American as a two-place trainer. It was flown by the 107th Tactical Fighter Squadron at Selfridge from 1972 to 1978 and was airlifted to Selfridge and presented to the Air Museum during the 1984 Air Show and Open House.

AIRCRAFT STATISTICS

| | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Wingspan: 38' 9.5" | Engine: J-57 |
| Length: 47' 1.25" | Thrust: 16,000 lbs. |
| Height: 15' 6" | Speed: 926 mph |
| Weight: 39,800 lbs. (loaded) | 1st Flight: 1953 |
| #56-3025 | |