

F-84F "Thunderstreak"

CHIVE MICHIGAN

Built by Republic, this swept-winged aircraft evolved from the straight winged F-84E. It was flown by the Michigan ANG at Detroit's Metropolitan Airport from 1958 to 1960. This aircraft went on display at the Selfridge Air Museum during the 1984 Air Show and Open House.

AIRCRAFT STATISTICS

Wingspan: 33' 7"	Engine: Wright J-65-W-3
Length: 43' 5"	Thrust: 7,220 lbs.
Height: 15'	Speed: 685 mph
Weight: 27,000 lbs	1 st Flight: 1954
#51-1664	