

F-100F Super Sabre

Adopted by Boy Scout Troop 127

This version of the F-100D was developed by North American as a two-place trainer. It was flown by the 107th Tactical Fighter Squadron at Selfridge from 1972 to 1978 and was airlifted to Selfridge and presented to the Air Museum during the 1984 Air Show and Open House.

AIRCRAFT STATISTICS

Wingspan: 38' 10"	Engine: P&W J-57-P-21
Length: 57' 1"	Thrust: 16,000 lbs
Height: 16' 2"	Speed: 875 mph
Weight: 39,122 lbs.	1st Flight: 1957