

SNB-5 "Navigator"

Adopted by the EAA Chapter 113

This aircraft is the military version of the Beech 18 commercial transport. The aircraft on display was originally an AT-7 that was converted to a Beech 18 after World War II and was restored to represent an NAS Grosse Ile SNB-5 that was used as a small transport and liaison aircraft. Variants were used to train navigators, bombardiers, and gunners.
